The fact is, it is the thin end of the wedge of the "yellow peril," and means the first step toward boycotting American trade in China. It is a grand triumph of the Chinese closed door policy as against the American open door programme. The view of this is that it is astonishing that, for any cash consideration whatenever, a man in the position of Mr. Morgan should have allowed himself to be ousted by the Chinese or that the United States Covernment should not have called a helt upon any such arrangement, which is
